St. Thomas: The Hub of the Virgin Islands

St. Thomas is the heart of the Virgin Islands, known for its bustling capital city, Charlotte Amalie. Explore the historic streets lined with colorful colonial buildings and duty-free shops. Take a ferry to the neighboring island of St. John for snorkeling and swimming in crystal-clear waters.

St. John: A Natural Paradise

St. John is a sanctuary for nature lovers, with over two-thirds of the island designated as a national park. Discover pristine beaches, lush hiking trails, and vibrant coral reefs. Snorkel with sea turtles at Maho Bay or hike to the summit of Ram Head for panoramic views of the archipelago.

St. Croix: A Rich Tapestry of History

St. Croix is the largest of the Virgin Islands and boasts a fascinating history. Explore the colonial architecture of Christiansted and Frederiksted, visit the Whim Plantation Museum to learn about the island's sugar industry, and relax on the secluded beaches of the East End.

Unforgettable Experiences in the Virgin Islands

- Swim with dolphins at Coral World Ocean Park
- Go zip-lining through the rainforest on St. Thomas
- Visit the Estate Whim Plantation Museum to experience the history of sugar production
- Snorkel or dive at Buck Island Reef National Monument

- Hike to the top of Ram Head on St. John for breathtaking views
- Attend a traditional Caribbean festival
