Synopsis

Stephanie Plum is back in action in Finger Lickin' Fifteen, the hilarious and suspenseful fifteenth installment in the #1 New York Times bestselling series. This time, Stephanie is on the hunt for a killer who has a taste for the finer things in life – and for human flesh.

When Stephanie's friend Lula is brutally murdered, Stephanie is determined to find her killer. But as she digs deeper into the case, she discovers that Lula was not who she seemed to be. Lula was living a double life, and she had a lot of secrets – including a secret admirer who would stop at nothing to keep her secrets safe.

As Stephanie investigates Lula's life, she uncovers a world of wealth, privilege, and danger. She also meets a handsome stranger named Ranger, who seems to be interested in more than just helping Stephanie find Lula's killer.

But as Stephanie gets closer to the truth, she realizes that she is in over her head. The killer is more dangerous than she ever imagined, and he will stop at nothing to silence Stephanie – even if it means killing her.

Reviews

Kirkus Reviews

Evanovich's signature blend of humor and suspense is on full display in this latest Stephanie Plum adventure. Stephanie is as feisty and funny as ever, and the supporting cast of characters is just as entertaining. The mystery is well-plotted and keeps the reader guessing until the very end.
