

Michael Symon's Incarnato: A Love Letter to Italian Food

Michael Symon, the award-winning chef and author of several best-selling cookbooks, has a new book out, and it's a love letter to Italian food. In Incarnato, Symon shares his passion for Italian cuisine, his love of cooking for family and friends, and over 100 recipes that are sure to please everyone at your table.

The book is divided into six chapters, each of which focuses on a different aspect of Italian cooking. The first chapter, "Antipasti," features recipes for small bites and snacks, such as bruschetta, crostini, and arancini. The second chapter, "Primi Piatti," includes recipes for pasta dishes, such as spaghetti carbonara, lasagna, and risotto. The third chapter, "Secondi Piatti," features recipes for main courses, such as chicken cacciatore, pork chops with roasted potatoes, and grilled salmon with lemon and herbs. The fourth chapter, "Contorni," includes recipes for side dishes, such as roasted vegetables, sautéed greens, and mashed potatoes. The fifth chapter, "Dolci," features recipes for desserts, such as tiramisu, panna cotta, and affogato. And the sixth chapter, "Basics," includes recipes for essential Italian ingredients, such as homemade pasta, pizza dough, and marinara sauce.
