From his humble beginnings as a stuntman on a low-budget horror movie to his rise to fame as the star of the hit TV series 'Baywatch,' David Hasselhoff has lived a life filled with daring, determination, and, of course, David Hasselhoff.

In his new memoir, 'My Life As Stuntboy,' Hasselhoff shares the incredible story of his journey from a small town in Wisconsin to the bright lights of Hollywood. Along the way, he recounts his early days as a stuntman, his struggles to break into acting, and his eventual rise to stardom.

Hasselhoff's book is filled with behind-the-scenes anecdotes, hilarious mishaps, and inspiring insights. He writes about his experiences working with some of the biggest names in Hollywood, including Tom Cruise, Steven Spielberg, and Pamela Anderson. He also shares his thoughts on fame, fortune, and the importance of following your dreams.

Whether you're a fan of action, adventure, or simply the pursuit of dreams, 'My Life As Stuntboy' is a must-read. It's a story of daring, determination, and the power of belief.

Excerpt from 'My Life As Stuntboy'

"I remember the first time I saw myself on screen. I was working on a low-budget horror movie, and I had a small part as a stuntman. I was supposed to get killed by a monster, and I was so nervous that I could barely stand. But when I saw the movie, I was amazed. I looked like a real action star! That's when I knew that I wanted to be an actor."

"I've had some amazing experiences in my life. I've worked with some of the biggest names in Hollywood, and I've traveled the world. But the best part of my journey has been the people I've met along the way. I've been blessed to have so many wonderful friends and family members who have supported me every step of the way."

"I'm so grateful for the life I've lived. It's been a wild ride, but I wouldn't trade it for anything. I've learned so much about myself and about the world. And I've had the privilege of sharing my journey with millions of people around the world."
