Pencilmate is a young pencil who is shy and has trouble making friends. He spends most of his time alone, drawing pictures in his notebook. One day,

Pencilmate's friends decide to help him overcome his fears and make new friends. They take him to the park, where he meets a group of children who are playing. Pencilmate is hesitant at first, but with the encouragement of his friends, he starts to talk to the children. He soon realizes that making friends is not as scary as he thought. In fact, it's actually quite fun!

Pencilmate Learns How to Make New Friends is a heartwarming story about the importance of friendship. It teaches children that it's okay to be shy, but that they shouldn't let their fears hold them back from making friends. With the help of friends, anything is possible.
