By Leigh Bardugo

In a war-torn world, where darkness threatens to consume all, a young woman discovers her true destiny as the Sun Summoner, capable of controlling light.

Alina Starkov is an orphaned mapmaker, living in the shadow of her best friend, Mal. But when their regiment is attacked by the monstrous Volcra, Alina unleashes a power she never knew she possessed, saving Mal's life. As her powers grow, Alina is taken to the Little Palace, a training ground for Grisha, the magical elite who serve the kingdom of Ravka. There, she must learn to control her dangerous gift and fight alongside the Grisha against the Shadow Fold, a vast and deadly abyss of darkness that divides the kingdom.

But Alina's destiny is not as simple as it seems. The Darkling, a powerful and enigmatic Grisha, has his own plans for her, and he will stop at nothing to use her power for his own sinister ends. As Alina struggles to find her place in this dangerous and treacherous world, she must forge new alliances and discover the true nature of her power, before it consumes her and all she holds dear.

Shadow and Bone is a captivating fantasy novel that delves into a world of darkness and light, magic and danger. With vivid characters, intricate world-building, and a gripping narrative, Shadow and Bone will keep you spellbound from beginning to end.
