About the Book

Shimon Peres was one of the most influential and respected leaders in Israeli history. He served as Prime Minister and President of Israel, and played a key role in shaping the country's foreign policy and security strategy. Peres was also a tireless advocate for peace between Israel and its Arab neighbors.

Statesman Without State is a comprehensive and insightful biography of Shimon Peres. The book explores Peres's life, career, and impact on Israel and the world. Author Martin Gilbert draws on extensive research and interviews with Peres and his close associates to provide a nuanced and detailed portrait of one of the most important figures in recent Israeli history.
