Immerse yourself in the opulent and scandalous world of Doris Duke, one of the wealthiest women of her time. Too Rich: The Family Secrets of Doris Duke, written by acclaimed biographer Stephanie Mansfield, unveils the fascinating story of Duke's life, her lavish lifestyle, and the secrets that surrounded her enigmatic family.

A Life of Extravagance

Duke, the tobacco heiress and daughter of tobacco baron James Buchanan Duke, inherited an estimated $100 million at the age of 12. This immense fortune allowed her to live a life of unimaginable luxury and extravagance. She amassed an impressive collection of art, jewelry, and exotic animals, and built palatial homes around the world.

Duke's incessant spending and opulent lifestyle became a topic of fascination and envy for many. She was known for her lavish parties, her numerous marriages, and her unconventional relationships with artists and celebrities. Behind the glamorous facade, however, lay a darker undercurrent of family secrets and personal struggles.

Hidden Scandals and Family Tensions

Mansfield's book delves into the lesser-known aspects of Duke's life, shedding light on the scandals that plagued her family. Duke's mother, Nanaline Holt Inman, was a complex and troubled woman who struggled with mental illness and drug addiction. Her father's second wife, Marie Duke, was a scheming socialite who attempted to control Doris's fortune.

As Doris grew older, she faced her own personal challenges. Her marriages were often tumultuous, and she battled with substance abuse. The secrets and tensions within her family culminated in a bitter legal battle over her estate after her death in 1993.

A Haunting Legacy

Doris Duke's life and legacy continue to fascinate and intrigue. Too Rich: The Family Secrets of Doris Duke provides a captivating account of her extraordinary wealth, the secrets that haunted her family, and the enduring impact she had on the world.

Whether you are a history buff, a fan of true crime, or simply fascinated by the lives of the ultra-wealthy, this book is sure to captivate you from beginning to end. So, delve into the world of Doris Duke and discover the hidden stories behind the headlines.
