

Torngat Mountains: New Waiver Northwords Story

A Wilderness Adventure into the Remote Heart of Canada

The Torngat Mountains, located in the far north of Labrador, Canada, are a vast and rugged wilderness area of towering peaks, deep fjords, and pristine lakes. This remote and awe-inspiring landscape has long been a destination for adventurers and explorers, and now, thanks to a new waiver system, it is more accessible than ever before.

In his new book, Torngat Mountains: A New Waiver Northwords Story, author David Steen recounts his journey into this pristine wilderness. Steen, an experienced hiker and backpacker, spent several weeks exploring the Torngat Mountains, hiking through alpine meadows, scrambling up rocky peaks, and paddling across sparkling lakes. Along the way, he encountered a variety of wildlife, including caribou, polar bears, and whales.

Steen's writing is both informative and evocative, and his photographs capture the beauty and grandeur of the Torngat Mountains. Torngat Mountains: A New Waiver Northwords Story is a must-read for anyone who loves wilderness adventure, hiking, backpacking, or photography.
