One by one, sinister incidents plague the valley, each more disturbing and depraved than the last. A child goes missing, a respected doctor is found brutally murdered, and an ancient evil stirs within the shadows. Soneri, haunted by his own tragic past, finds himself drawn deeper into the abyss, where the lines between reality and nightmare blur.

A Tortured Soul in the Face of Evil

Commissario Soneri is a complex and enigmatic figure, a man tormented by the darkness he has witnessed throughout his career. As he investigates the horrors of Colle Isarco, his own demons resurface, threatening to consume him. Yet, amidst the madness and terror, Soneri's indomitable spirit burns brightly, driving him forward in his relentless pursuit of justice.

Accompanied by his loyal assistant, Inspector Ferrari, Soneri unravels a web of deceit and corruption that extends far beyond the isolated village. The suspects range from enigmatic villagers to powerful figures with sinister agendas. As Soneri delves deeper into the investigation, he realizes that the evil he faces is not merely human but something far more ancient and malevolent.

Unveiling the Sinister Truth

With meticulous precision and unwavering determination, Commissario Soneri pieces together the fragmented clues, gradually exposing the shocking truth. The crimes that have plagued Colle Isarco are not random acts of violence but meticulously orchestrated rituals connected to a dark and malevolent cult. The ancient evil that has awakened in the valley threatens to consume everything in its path.

As Soneri confronts the ultimate evil, he must confront his own inner demons and summon the strength to embrace the light. The fate of Colle Isarco and the souls of its inhabitants hang in the balance. In a climactic showdown that will test the limits of human endurance, Soneri faces his greatest challenge yet, where the line between good and evil becomes dangerously blurred.
